

Faith: An Adventure for Oneself

Communion and Liberation Beginning Day

November 8, 2008 2:30 pm

Catholic Church of Saint Monica

1700 Buford Hwy, Duluth GA 30097

Public welcome, Free admission

What is faith? Is it just wishful thinking, or is it something that we can verify in our own lives? Christopher Bacich, leader of Communion and Liberation in the United States, will talk about these topics and more as he introduces the Catholic movement founded by Fr. Luigi Giussani in 1954.

Communion and Liberation is grounded in the conviction that the Christian event, lived in communion, is the foundation of the authentic liberation of man. Recognized by the Vatican as an Association of Pontifical Right, CL is present today in about 70 countries throughout the world.

For more information, email Jim Cork at jessnjimcork@gmail.com or visit <http://www.clonline.us>.

Photo: The Call of Peter and Andrew, bronze panel from the door of the Benevento Cathedral (13th cent).