

COMMUNION & LIBERATION

GOOD FRIDAY 2009

WAY OF THE CROSS

The arm is taken and the nail descends into the flesh. And the other arm is pulled and the hammer like a blind machine continues its rhythmic work. Now the arms of Christ are the arms of the cross and His legs are the trunk of the cross. "O Father, in the end I am caught and I can no longer flee. I am nailed to this wood hands and feet. And raising me up here on the cross these men have fixed forever the image of my return to You. And they decided now and for all eternity that there will be no God without the Earth, and no Earth without God"

Paul Claudel
